Dear Mr French,

I acknowledge receipt of your email at the Condamine Electorate office of Mr Ray Hopper MP.

Thank you for writing on behalf of Brisbane Central Business District Bicycle Users Group.

Ray appreciates that you have taken the time to highlight issues in relation to transport and the safety of cyclists in Brisbane.

With the 2015 election campaign being conducted over a brief time frame, Ray regrets that he will be unable to personally respond to all the requests he has received to discuss Election issues, prior to the Election on 31st January.

For information relating to Katter's Australian Party policy and core values and principles, you may wish to refer to the KAP website: www.kattersaustralianparty.com.au

Alternatively, you may also contact the Queensland head office of the KAP at:

Dear Mr Hopper

Please find attached a letter from the Brisbane Central Business Bicycle User Group (CBD BUG).

A letter similar to this is being sent to all the major parties contesting the 2015 Queensland State Election.

Regards

Paul French
