Hi Paul, thanks for your continued advocacy for cycling infrastructure. I agree with you that the Brisbane City Council's proposed green bridges are an exciting development and of great benefit to Brisbane's active transport community. I haven't had cause to go through the cost benefit analysis in great depth as I do not believe the Brisbane City Council is seeking financial contributions from any other level of government to make these investments, but I understand that the communities that I represent are quite supportive of these proposals and therefore so am I.

Thanks again for reaching out and please take care of yourself and others in these challenging times. Keep in touch.

Kind regards,

Trevor
